Dear Sirs,

2014 Statement of Accounts due by 30 April 2015

Thank you for your reminder letter dated 25 March 2015.

Accordingly please find enclosed the Party's 2014 Statement of Accounts

Yours faithfully

John Trodden

Treasurer, Justice & Anti-Corruption Party.

If it's not true, why won't they sue?

The Justice & Anti-Corruption Party

Statement of Accounts for year ending 31 December 2014

Registered address

Responsible Officers

Name	Position
Les Cummings	Leader
Don Jerrard	Nominating Officer
John Trodden	Treasurer

Overview of Political Activities

The objective of the Party is to expose fraud, corruption and other criminal activities at local and national level, and to seek justice for anyone suffering as a result. This also involves exposing negligence by the regulatory authorities such as the police.

In the year ending 31 December 2014 the party did not enter a candidate in any local or national election.

The Party continues to make strong representation on behalf of people who are oppressed or who are exploited by those in central or local government and to support and nominate candidates at local and national elections. It is the intention of the Party to enter candidates in the parliamentary and local elections taking place on 7 May 2015.

Membership

nil

In the year ending 31 December 2014 there were four elected members and one co-opted member at local level

Review of Financial Activities

Currently there have been no subscriptions. All candidates have paid their own election expenses.

The party has no fixed overheads as one of the founders meets all office costs from his home. In consequence no fixed assets have been purchased and no loans or commercial contracts have been entered into.
