Review of political activities

The party celebrated St. Georges Day (by supporting local St. Georges Committees), National Independents Day (for small shopkeepers – 4th June) and Magna Carta Day (15th June).

Two new national Leaflets were produced under the title 'Liberalism as it should be!' explaining the Credit Crunch and why 'British Jobs for British workers'.

Electorally, the NLP stood in one by-election where they beat (for the third time) a Liberal Democrat (St. Andrews, Havering, Essex) and increased their share of the vote.

The electoral coalition in Havering - The Peoples Alliance was reformed in preparation for next year's local elections. The various constituents of the Alliance – The National Liberal Party, the Independent Local Residents Group (2 existing councilors) and various non-aligned Independents began to increase their literature distribution.

A new publication named 'Liveable Nation' (based around the book 'Progressive Nationalism') was released by Third Way Publications (run by the 'Think-Tank' Third Way www.thirdway.eu which supports the NLP).
