Liberal Democrats in England

Report of the Party Officers for the year ended 31 December 2014

Staffing

The Party had no permanent members of staff.

2. Review of political activities

In 2014 the Party continued its programme of regional development, building membership and campaign capacity across the party in England. At the general election held on 7 May 2015, 6 Liberal Democrat Members of Parliament were elected. Since polling day membership has increased by a third to 54,000.

3. Financial Review

The Party had a deficit of £72,544 for the year, resulting in it having net liabilities of £96,253 at the year end.

The deficit for the year was largely the result of the English Party's share (£63,793) of the Membership Incentive Scheme cost. This scheme was introduced in the last quarter of 2013 and proved to be highly successful resulting in membership increasing by more than 1,000 over the course of the year. The scheme rewards local parties that increase their membership quarter on quarter by paying them a higher proportion of the membership subscriptions received in that quarter. The cost is shared with the Liberal Democrats (The Federal Party) and the relevant regional party.

1 Accounting policies

The Liberal Democrats (The Federal Party) is a federation constituted by the Scottish Liberal Democrats, the Welsh Liberal Democrats and the Liberal Democrats in England (the State Parties). The Liberal Democrats in England is a federation of the Regional Parties in England. The Regional Parties comprise a number of Local Parties.

The Liberal Democrats in England is constituted under section 26 of the Political Parties, Elections and Referendums Act 2000 as an accounting unit of the Liberal Democrats.

These financial statements deal solely with the activities of the Liberal Democrats in England as set out in Article 6 of the Constitution of the Liberal Democrats in England. They do not include the income, expenditure, assets or liabilities of the Federal Party or of Regional, Local Parties or any other bodies.

Basis of preparation

The Liberal Democrats in England is not incorporated in law and is thus not bound by the Companies Act 2006. The Party is required to prepare financial statements in accordance with the Political Parties, Elections and Referendums Act 2000 ("PPERA"). The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention, and in accordance with applicable law and accounting standards in the United Kingdom (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice). The financial statements reflect the principles contained in the Statement of Accounts Guidance Notes issued by the Electoral Commission.

Going concern

The Liberal Democrats in England share a banking facility with certain other Liberal Democrat entities, including the Liberal Democrats (The Federal Party) and there is a right of set off between bank accounts of those entities. The Registered Treasurer has therefore considered the applicability of the going concern basis of preparation of the financial statements by reference to the aggregated financial position of those entities.

The Liberal Democrats (The Federal Party) relies on the receipt of donation income to meet a significant proportion of its expenditure, and an overdraft facility with the Royal Bank of Scotland to meet working capital requirements. Donation income is inherently unpredictable, but the Registered Treasurer is confident that sufficient donations will be received and facilities will continue to be available to allow the entity to meet its obligations.

The Registered Treasurer has reviewed the aggregated cash flow projections for the entities to the end of June 2016. On the basis of these projections the Registered Treasurer is satisfied that the Party will be able to meet its financial obligations as they fall due and, on this basis, considers that it is appropriate to prepare the financial statements on a going concern basis.

The following principal accounting policies have been applied:

Income recognition

Income is recognised when all of the following conditions have been met:

- The Party is entitled to the asset;
- There is reasonable certainty that the asset will be received; and
- The value of the asset can be measured with reasonable certainty.

Applying these criteria to specific types of income results in the following treatment:

- Membership and subscription fees are recognised on a receipts basis.
- Interest receivable is recognised in the income and expenditure account on an accruals basis.
- Fundraising income is recognised in the income and expenditure account on receipt.

Expenditure

The English Party adopted a Membership Incentive Scheme in the final quarter of 2013 whereby local parties that increased their membership received a higher proportion of membership subscriptions. This scheme is funded in conjunction with the Federal and Regional Parties.

Payments of the relevant share of membership subscriptions to regional and local parties, including payments under the Membership Incentive Scheme, are accounted for on an accruals basis.

The Federal Party receives a proportion of membership subscriptions as agreed by Federal Conference at the preceding autumn conference. This is reduced by its contribution towards the cost of the Membership Incentive Scheme.

The Federal Party meets the majority of the overheads incurred by the English State Party. The Federal Party recovers these costs through recharges.

Pension costs

Contributions to the Party's defined contribution pension scheme are charged to the income and expenditure account in the year in which they become payable.

Tax

As a voluntary society, tax is only charged on investment income.
